About MYPRABANDHA

MyPrabandha is an application exceptionally designed with a concrete plan, analyzing and fulfilling every possible user requirement, predominantly for people associated with schools to access information directly on devices convenient to them. The application build is accessible on android mobiles, iOS mobiles, and desktops. It is developed in response to growing digital communication required for school communities. MyPrabandha delivers information directly to principals, parents, teachers, and students updating information regarding all school-related activities. Parents can stay connected to schools and communicate whenever they feel to know about your child's performance. With our fully integrated application, we have managed to combine all school related information all at one place. This application is useful to principals, teachers, parents, and students. Faculty can update information pertaining to forthcoming events, homework, answer to queries, attendance. Likewise, the admin can approve e-books posted by students and update scheduled timetable, plan exam syllabus and share notification about events. This helps the parents to check their children report and suggestions with respect to a faculty or a class or subject even by sitting at their homes. Students can also access the application wherein, they can post complaints and suggestions, write exams, share their talents and skills.
